FURTHER MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A further message from the Senate by Ms. Byrd, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate has agreed to without amendment a joint resolution of the House of the following title:

H.J. Res. 100. Joint Resolution to provide for a resolution with respect to the unresolved disputes between certain railroads represented by the National Carriers' Conference Committee of the National Railway Labor Conference and certain of their employees.

The message also announced that the Senate has not agreed to a concurrent resolution of the House of the following title:

H. Con. Res. 119. Concurrent Resolution providing for a correction in the enrollment of H.J. Res. 100.

The message also announced that the Senate has passed a bill of the following title in which the concurrence of the House is requested:

S. 4171. An Act to reauthorize the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000, and for other purposes.

PERMISSION FOR MEMBER TO BE CONSIDERED AS FIRST SPONSOR OF H.R. 5296

Ms. BONAMICI. Madam Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that I may hereafter be considered to be the first sponsor of H.R. 5296, a bill originally introduced by Representative CHARLIE CRIST of Florida, for the purpose of adding cosponsors and requesting reprintings pursuant to clause 7 of rule XII.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Oregon?

There was no objection.

HONORING CORPORAL HIROSHI "HERSHEY" MIYAMURA

(Ms. LEGER FERNANDEZ asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. LEGER FERNANDEZ. Madam Speaker, I rise today to commemorate a hero.

Yesterday morning, the city of Gallup and all New Mexicans lost a leader and patriot when Corporal Hiroshi "Hershey" Miyamura passed away.

Corporal Miyamura volunteered to serve in the Korean war after his defense of our country in World War II. The call of service is one that a select few among us choose to answer. He chose to answer it twice.

In 1951, he fought a barrage of enemy attacks that threatened his company, engaging in hand-to-hand combat. He singlehandedly held the line, giving his squad time to reach safety. He would spend the next 27 months as a prisoner of war.

Corporal Miyamura was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor for his service, only learning of his achievement upon his release in 1953. He was the second-to-last living Korean war Medal of Honor recipient. Now, his passing reminds us of the sacrifices our veterans make to defend our Nation.

Madam Speaker, we will remember him and miss him. Most of all, we will always honor him.

REMEMBERING FRANK SCHIEFELBEIN, JR.

(Mr. EMMER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. EMMER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Frank Schiefelbein, Jr.

Frank passed away earlier this week at the age of 89. Frank, or "Big Frank," as so many of us knew him, is survived by his wife, Frosty. Over the course of their nearly 70-year marriage, they were blessed with 9 children, 32 grandchildren, and 31 great-grandchildren, with number 32 on the way.

Big Frank was a giant in Minnesota agriculture. Following in his father's footsteps as a farmer, Big Frank grew his herd of Angus cattle to the largest in Minnesota and one of the largest in the United States. He was an active member of the Minnesota Cattlemen's Association.

Today, his sons carry on that legacy, with seven of them working on the farm and his son Don serving as president of the National Beef Cattlemen's Association.

After the tragic loss of their third son, Bill, to an 11-year battle with schizophrenia, Big Frank spent thousands of hours helping those in need, advocating for legislation to address the mental health crisis and ensuring better care for those struggling.

Big Frank was known for his big personality. His loss will be felt by all of us who had the privilege to know him. He was a great man who led an incredible life.

RECOGNIZING TACKLE BOX 2

(Ms. KAPTUR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. KAPTUR. Madam Speaker, I rise today to share another good news story from Ohio's Ninth Congressional District.

With the new Ninth District stretching from the Indiana border to Sandusky County and beyond, my team and I are wasting no time in getting out and introducing ourselves and making new friends.

Over the Thanksgiving break, I had the pleasure of stopping by Tackle Box 2 in Fremont, Ohio, an iconic fish house pub along the banks of the Sandusky River. That fish house is home to a remarkable array of fishing memorabilia, tasty food, especially the perch, and a very friendly and welcoming staff, as you will see here.

Pictured are Angela, Rose, Carla, and Linda, new friends I made who take pride in their hard work and their community. In the hard jobs that they work, they serve guests with a welcoming smile—wonderful, smiley faces—and such a warm presence.

Angela, Rose, Carla, and Linda, as we move into the excitement and tugs of heart of the holiday season, may the joy each of you and your colleagues make possible be returned to you sevenfold.

The ethic of hard work and kindness beats fully in the hearts of these fine women.

HONORING RUTH WARD

(Mr. JOHNSON of Louisiana asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. JOHNSON of Louisiana. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the tenure of my longtime scheduler, director of operations, and policy adviser, Ruth Ward.

After 6 extraordinary years on Capitol Hill, Ruth is leaving public service for a new opportunity, and she is also adding a second baby to the family in the process.

My wife, Kelly, and I have known Ruth for many years and have admired her work and exceptional talents long before she joined our team after my election to Congress in 2016.

Ruth has been more than a consummate professional and office coordinator. She has brought faithful perspective and wise counsel. She has mentored countless young staffers, and she has opened her home to those who are away from family during the holidays.

Ruth has been like family to all of us. Everybody on Team Johnson will miss her presence terribly.

Madam Speaker, we thank her for her invaluable contributions to the people of our home State of Louisiana and ensure her that she and Richard and their young family will remain in our prayers as they pursue the next steps in their journey.

We are grateful, Ruth. Thank you for a job well done.

THANKING VOTERS OF NEW JERSEY'S 10TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

(Mr. PAYNE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PAYNE. Madam Speaker, I rise today for an issue that I have wanted to address for several weeks. I want to thank the voters of New Jersey's 10th Congressional District for reelecting me to Congress.

It is a tremendous privilege to represent my district, one that I honor
